

eLearning Expectations:

- There is a MANDATORY summative evaluation on July 28 and 29, 2022. Specific details regarding the summative evaluation will be detailed by the teacher on the first day of the course
- There is a MANDATORY summative evaluation on August 24 and 25, 2022. Specific details regarding the summative evaluation will be detailed by the teacher on the first day of the course
- You are expected to login to your course for a minimum of 6 hours per day (Monday – Friday) (3 hours per day for extended eLearning programs). Additional time may be required for assignment completion.
- You are responsible for checking announcements and emails for updates.
- It is important that you communicate on a regular basis with your teacher. Teachers are not required to be available on weekends.
- Course outlines list the required assignments and deadlines. You are responsible for making sure all assignments are completed, and submitted by the deadlines assigned. The short timeframe of Summer School will not allow for extensions and therefore failure to complete work as per the timelines established may result in removal from the course.
- Please note that the DDSB acceptable use policy applies to all e-Learning courses, as does the Durham Continuing Education Code of Conduct.
- All students are expected to abide by the Computer Information Technology and Internet Use Policy
- ✓ Please note that the DDSB acceptable use policy applies to all e-Learning courses, as does the Durham Continuing Education Code of Conduct.